Seeing double can come from being drunk. Or a high fever. Or a severe blow. So it's small wonder that many guys suffer from it when they face up to the double visions these big-breasted babes show them. Those jugs intoxicate men. They certainly raise the old thermometer, too. And as busts in the mouth, they're earth-shaking blows. Taking them both is sure to bring out the best in guys and it often seems to double what they have for girls, too.

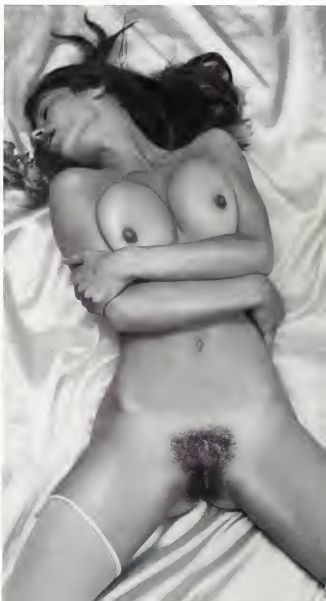

Girls are not supposed to be very good at gambling, but it's amazing what they do in some games with men. A guy comes up with a good hand but will be topped by a big pair that the chick has. It's no good trying to bluff, either. She can't hide what she's got, and it'll take his ace in the hole.

Chicks sometimes have a hard time choosing the men they like best. Plumbers know how to tighten nipples, bootleggers know how to get the most out of jugs, doormen have a way with knockers and guys in white coats can really handle boobies.

Holidays—all around the calendar—are to enjoy with babes like these. They've got never-dry jugs for New Year's Eve, giant eggs for Easter, juicy melons for the Glorious Fourth, fantastic pumpkins for Halloween and globes that'll outshine the Xmas tree. But the best thing is, that once a guy latches on, he'll never run dry of good times.
